Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Director Casey:

Thank you for your note of May 17. I fully concur that we should "bury and correct" the misunderstanding between our staffs. The best way to accomplish this is for the CIA and the subcommittee to agree immediately on realistic and meaningful public summaries of the 17 disputed CIA documents. I believe this route is preferable to continuing to debate our differences before the full Government Operations Committee and conceivably the entire House. Let's get our staffs together now.

Sincerely,

Benjamin S. Rosenthal
Chairman
